DSCC MASTER SOLICITATION (REVISION 2)
AUGUST 2001 – EDITION

Pursuant to the Department of Defense Acquisition Improvement Program which is intended to reduce the size and cost of individual solicitations and provide industry with simplified solicitation and award documents, the Defense Supply Center Columbus is issuing this Master Solicitation which will apply to solicitations issued after August 1, 2001.

The Master Solicitation is applicable to those solicitations, offers and awards that reference it. The contractor should retain a copy of this Master for ready reference when responding to a solicitation or when performing on an award. In some instances clauses will be incorporated by reference; however those having no bearing on the instant acquisition become self-deleting.

The Master Solicitation itself states or references numerous provisions and clauses that are repetitively used. This Master Solicitation is available to all potential suppliers via the World Wide Web at (<http://dibbs.dscccols.com/Refs/ProvClauses/>) or upon written request to the issuing office or by calling (614) 692-4042 or email to <mailto:Mary.Perry@dsc.dla.mil>.

NOTE: The Issuing Office address is as follows:
